Our college has emerged as an arts and science college with a difference, a promising institution of the region providing value added, quality education in arts and science, an institution striding towards excellence. With great pleasure, I hand over this edition of the news letter which focuses on the growth and achievement of our institution during the last few months. During this period we carried out several extension programmes, workshops, seminars and lectures that benefit the students,

With great pride, let me inform you that our college has come out in flying colours both in arts and sports competitions. Students bagged many prizes in the D-Zone and Inter-Zone competitions and our college team won the Calicut University D-Zone Volley ball tournament.

I would like to thank the managing committee, staff and students for their whole hearted dedication and support they have extended in taking this institution to further heights. I congratulate the whole editorial team for their earnest efforts in issuing this news letter. I wish all success to students.
